

2014-2015 Admission Brochure of Fujian University of Technology (FJUT) For “Chinese Government Scholarship – Cooperative Program with Its Provinces and Autonomous Regions”

“Chinese Government Scholarship – Cooperative Program with Its Provinces and Autonomous Regions” is a full scholarship set up by the Ministry of Education aiming to support scholarships for international students established by local education departments in specific provinces or autonomous regions.

Fujian University of Technology begins to accept applications for full-time Master degree studies under “Chinese Government Scholarship – Cooperative Program with Its Provinces and Autonomous Regions” for the school year 2014~2015. The details are as follows:

1. Category, Duration, Language of Instruction

Category: Scholarship covers two to three years of studies toward master degree of engineering.

Program: Traffic and Transportation Engineering, Materials Science and Engineering, and Civil Engineering in graduate studies.

Language of Instruction: The programs in Chinese universities can be instructed either in Chinese or in English. Scholarship recipients of Chinese-taught programs without adequate Chinese proficiency must take Chinese language training courses for one year so as to fulfill the language requirements of their host universities prior to majoring in their specialty.

Duration of the Scholarship: The duration of the scholarship will be limited to the student's admission to the university, and will not be extended in principle.

Scholarship winners after entrance into China will be managed according to the relevant regulations of Chinese Government.

Students are not permitted, in general, to apply to change their specialties, their host universities or the duration of study as specified in the Admission Letter once they agree to accept the scholarship.
