

BE THE CHANGE

SHAPE THE WORLD WITH US!

MOL Group keeps people moving ahead by discovering new ways of serving their energy needs better and creating value for generations to come.

As a leading Central European international oil and gas company with operations in 40 countries in Europe, the MENA region and CIS member countries. MOL Group employs more than 32 000 people worldwide. Group Supply & Sales invites applications for the position of

PRODUCT & RENEWABLES TRADING TRAINEE

Based in

BUDAPEST

Scope

As a member of the Product and Renewables Trading team, supports refined products and biofuel management on MOL Group level. Participates in preparing decision-making materials and in business projects. Provides assistance to Head of Group Product & Renewables Trading and other team members. Prepares financial calculations and carries out several operative and ad-hoc tasks in the field of fuel and bio components.

Tasks and responsibilities

- Active participation in daily issues of the organization
- Preparing reports about business problems and calculations regarding business effect of decision alternatives
- Supporting gasoil, gasoline, biodiesel and ethanol supply planning with analysis

Requirements

- Active day school student in Hungary
- Preferably BA university degree in Business Studies
- Advanced knowledge of MS Office applications
- Advanced level of English
- Proactive and result oriented attitude
- Self-sufficient, accountable, precise, process-focused, able to handle complexity

For more information, please contact vgyori@mol.hu

Closing date for applications (CV, optionally cover letter): 1st March 2019